The Good Samaritan

The gospel reading today is the story after which our church was named in 2001. We just celebrated 24 years! Hard to believe in ways. The story of the good Samaritan crystalizes for us the notion of helping someone in need that is not of one's own group. The good Samaritan stops and helps the beaten up stranger; pays for his care at a nearby inn. He does not look for anything in return. He does in out of the goodness of his heart. In these days of mean heartedness and desire to remove immigrants who have committed no injustice from our country we all need to take head to this story and encourage our leaders to do the same. Speak out for justice, love and caring for others even if they are not from "our group". We are one people under one God; created equal and in need of love and care.

Go forth and proclaim the good news of God's love. Accept the love of our Creator God and let it into your heart. Today more than ever we are called as God's people to carry this message of healing and love into our world for there are forces that wish to suppress freedom and equality. Keep praying with and for us and we will for you. Just let us know what needs you have for prayer. We need your prayers and we pray for each of you. Send us your prayer requests and join us on Sundays at 4 p.m. join us this and every Sunday!

Please join us on Facebook or by gathering at the chapel in Brunswick where it will be broadcast live. Let the prayers continue!

Please join us and the many others around the world that read the daily readings and pray. The Daily Readings expand the range of biblical reading in worship and personal devotion by providing daily citations for the full three year cycle of the Revised Common Lectionary. These readings complement the Sunday and festival readings: Thursday through Saturday readings help prepare the reader for the Sunday ahead; Monday through Wednesday readings help the reader reflect on and digest what they heard in worship.
